THROUGH THE VEIL', A Reading By Joy / SC Jones, DD. August 2015.

Plot: Mysterious stalkings in the haunted woods of White Mountain Apache lands opens a door in the spirit realm that reveals the murders of a survivalist family in the high pines of the Apache-Sitgreaves National Forests. Trusting in God's protection from shape-shifters, ghosts, wolves and stalkers, suspense leads to faith and a discovery that the mountainous woods have a living history that is colliding with global surveillance, while escalating into an environment requiring spiritual power to deal with it. While some pursue accessing the spirit realm for balance and healing, science may eliminate the very thing it's seeking -- truth. [Fiction or nonfiction would indicate the reader's perspective.] Illustrations: Ink and pencil drawings. Reading Presentation: First person incident citings and spiritual readings with historical, cultural, religious and environmental assessments. Western Apache Indian's Legal Rights to access sacred sites for religious purposes. The importance of religious freedom to all U.S. citizens, and government perspective references.

'Readings & Treasures -- A Tombstone, Arizona Shop', By Joy / SC Jones, DD

An historical introduction to Tombstone, Arizona's Readings & Treasures' Shop -- Started in order to rent a house, the arty-ghost-town shop of eclectic-memorabilia and natural creations gave Joy / SC Jones' the opportunity to give Card Readings and write. ¶ In the face of Tombstone and U.S-Mexico Border politics, her plans for working in Mexico with orphans and missions changed into a research project, later released as 'Mexico's Rising Sun'. ¶ Photos of Readings & Treasures' Memorabilia are accompanied by the shop's brochure, 'It Was In The Cards.' With a look at playing card history and their use in Tombstone's boom town mining era, Joy's perspective on "working with people's needs to create new beginnings" through card reading and paranormal investigations is accompanied with references to her books on the Holy Spirit and Cartomancy. ¶ Completed and released at the Readings & Treasures' shop and online, the 'Hill House' Shadow Box Exhibit, Commemorating Amnesty International is included with its Brochure, Film and Research references.
